

Locked Up: Pain and Resilience

Featuring work by incarcerated artists, this exhibit celebrates the resilience of the human spirit and the power of art to comfort, heal, and rehabilitate.

OCTOBER 3 – DECEMBER 7, 2019

Image: Detail from Yard Acrylic by Brian Hindson, Yazoo City, MS

First Friday ArtWalk & Opening Reception – October 4 • 6-8:30 pm

6 pm: Music by Jesse Anderson. Refreshments served. | 7 pm: “Mass Incarceration: Racial Justice and the Bordering of Citizenship” – an illustrated presentation by Professor Nancy Wonders, PhD, Department of Criminology & Criminal Justice, NAU.

First Friday ArtWalk – November 1 • 6-8:30 pm

6 pm: Music by Brad and Deb. Refreshments served. | 7 pm: “People Not Prisons” – with Khalil Rushdan, featuring stories by representatives of the ACLU Smart Justice Campaign, the Justice Project at ASU, and Arizona Faith Network.

First Friday ArtWalk – December 6 • 6-8:30 pm

6 pm: Music by Shawn Dennehy and Matt Sarnoski. Refreshments served. | 7 pm: “Justice in Coconino County” – an expert panel discussion with: Jim Driscoll, Coconino County Sheriff • The Hon. Fanny Steinlage, Superior Court Division VI, Mental Health Court Sixto Valdivia, Recovery Court Coordinator • Jim Bret, Detention Center Program Manager • Michael Vaughn, Exodus Program Counselor

*Thanks ro Deacon Kim Crecca of the Episcopal Diocese of Arizona and Wendy Jason of the Justice Arts Coalition for their help in obtaining the art for this exhibit.
To view works by other incarcerated people, go to www.thejusticeartscoalition.org.*

OPEN DOORS
ART in ACTION
• RAISING AWARENESS THROUGH ART

423 N. Beaver St. • Flagstaff AZ 86001 • 928.774.2911
Hours: Tues – Fri, 9 am – 12 pm, 1– 4 pm • Sun, 8 am – 12:30 pm

Programs made possible through support by

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE EPIPHANY

423 N. Beaver St. • Flagstaff AZ 86001
928.774.2911 • www.epiphanyaz.org