

Open Doors: Art in Action invites you to submit artwork focused on the theme of MENTAL ILLNESS

The exhibit will run Oct–Nov, 2026 in the gallery housed in the Parish Hall of the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany.

Artwork to be considered: Two-dimensional art in any media, as well as small three-dimensional pieces and short videos. Poems, short stories, and essays (under 200 words in pdf format) will also be considered for this exhibit.

Entries must include:

- 150-200 word Artist Statement and Bio
- Up to three (3) images of artwork(s) to be considered (in jpg format @ 300dpi) plus the title, media, dimensions and price (or NFS) for each piece. Art in Action does not broker artwork, but a price can be included with no commission. Links to artists for inquiries can be included on the exhibit plaque.

Email entries:

After creating a folder with required content included, please compress (zip) and email by September 1, 2026 to: epiphanyodaia@gmail.com or send the file by WeTransfer.com to epiphanyodaia@gmail.com.

The Open Doors: Art in Action committee looks forward to reviewing your submissions. Thank you!

Open Doors: Art In Action Gallery exhibits original art and partners with local non-profits to raise awareness of social, environmental, and justice issues in our community and around the world.